The monthly newsletter from Galt Airport and EAA Chapter 932

January 2016

Feature Story:

After many years of award-winning work, our newsletter editor Beth has decided to resign from the position to allow a new volunteer to take up the cause. Beth relied on many volunteer writers to create feature stories and monthly columns, and spent most of her time compiling the content into the newsletter. I mention this to allay any concerns of potential volunteers who fear writing stories. Fear not, the writing is (mostly) done by others.

So please, please, consider volunteering to be our newsletter editor.

EAA 932 V.P.

Resignation:

After five years as editor of Galt Traffic it is now time for me to move on. It has been a true pleasure and privilege to serve in this role and I am proud of what the newsletter, the airport and the EAA chapter have achieved during my tenure as editor. When I volunteered for this position I had no idea where it would lead but I did have several objectives. My first goal was to provide a way to connect members of the Galt community. The many individuals who provided material, pictures, regular columns and feature stories certainly provided a forum that helped people get to know each other. The second goal was to inspire everyone to aviate by sharing stories about others' arial adventures. My final objective was to expand our readership in order to attract new chapter members, students and hangar tenants to the airport. I think I can safely say that objective was achieved as our current distribution is over 650 email addresses! But now I believe it is time for a change and whomever takes over as the new editor, I hope they will bring fresh ideas and a new approach to this important communication tool. Of course I will be happy to mentor and support anyone interested in becoming the new editor and I hope you all will continue to support this publication with your story contributions. Lastly I would like to thank my team of regular writers, without whom the newsletter would have been very bare! Special thanks to the amazing and prolific Jeff Hill, Sr., who spends much time scouring the Internet for interesting topics of conversation and has written many of your favorite feature articles. Many thanks to my husband, Eric Rehm, who so gallantly provided material to fill blank pages at a moment's notice as well as writing many great stories for the April Fools issues! Thank you to my good friend Larry Schubert for his willingness to share so many of his exciting aviating escapades with our readers. And thank you to our current EAA president, Ed Moricoli, who taxed our brains with his quizzes and wrote a regular column on learning to fly. They are truly the voices of the Galt community and it was a great honor to share their messages with our readers.
